

An illustration of a young girl with long blonde hair, wearing a pink tank top, sitting on a large tree stump and reading a book. The background shows a blue sky and green foliage. The title 'Year 3 Read and Respond' is written in white on a green background.

Year 3

Read and Respond

Child Name: _____

Class: _____

Text Talk

Two of the characters from the story you've just read have been texting each other non-stop! Can you write a conversation between the two characters about something that happened in the story?

This phone belongs to:

This phone belongs to:

Lost Luggage

Think about the main character from the last story you read. Inside the suitcase, draw three items that could belong to them. Then, in the boxes below, write three clues about who they are. Can a friend or an adult correctly guess their identity?

Clue 1:

Clue 2:

Clue 3:

The mystery character is... _____

The Comic Creator

Think of a story you have read or one that is from your own imagination. Create a comic strip all about it, with pictures and captions, that will wow your audience.

A large rectangular frame containing seven empty panels for a comic strip. The panels are arranged as follows: a large rectangle in the top-left; a smaller vertical rectangle in the top-right; a vertical rectangle on the middle-left; a large rectangle on the middle-right; a wide trapezoidal shape at the bottom-left; and two vertical rectangles at the bottom-right.

Quick Quiz

Think of the last story that you read. Write true or false questions about the plot, characters, the setting or the information you have learnt. Ask a friend or adult to answer them. Will they get full marks?

True or False

True or False

True or False

True or False

True or False

Score:

Fairytale Email

Your favourite fairytale character has gone digital! Can you write an email from the character to one of their friends telling them about what they've been up to recently? Plan your writing below and then write onto the screen to become an Internet sensation.

A large rectangular area containing 25 horizontal lines for writing. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across most of the width of the page.

Fairytale Email

A large, dark grey tablet graphic with rounded corners. At the top center is a small circle representing a camera. At the bottom center is a larger circle representing a home button. The central area of the tablet is white and contains 20 horizontal lines for writing an email.

Moving Day

The main character from the last story you read is moving house. They have packed up all of their worldly possessions into the boxes below. Can you draw or write what would be inside their moving boxes? Think about items that would represent them as a person.

Personal Items:

Clothes:

Bedroom:

Kitchen:

Bathroom:

The Honest Reviewer

Can you write an honest book review about your latest read?

Title: _____

Author: _____

I would give it

Themes and issues in the book:

A short recap of the plot:

A picture of the characters:

The dilemma and its resolution:

My favourite part of the book and why:

Adverb Encyclopaedia

Your challenge is to find at least one adverb beginning with every letter of the alphabet within one of your reading books. Write them below and say which book you found it in.

a	b	c
d	e	f
g	h	i
j	k	l
m	n	o
p	q	r
s	t	u
v	w	x (sound)
y	z

I Know, I Think, I Wonder...

Think about the main character from the last story you read or your favourite storybook character. Complete this chart about what you know about them, what you think about them and what you wonder about them and would like to find out.

Character's Name
What I Know	What I Think	What I Wonder

Sensational Settings

Draw a picture of an interesting, mysterious or frightening setting from a story that you have read. Imagine that you are there and use your senses to describe it.

My chosen setting is: _____

I can hear...

I can see....

I can sense...

I can taste...

I can touch..

I can smell...
